November 11, 2023
Glover Stadium
Anaheim, California

Every November, thousands of top-rated musicians and cheering spectators converge on Glover Stadium in Anaheim for one of the longest-running and largest band field show tournaments in Southern California. Hosted by the Savanna High Band & Pageantry Booster Organization, it is a chance for these Band and Colorguard units to compete for not only the day's scores, but to finalize their Southern California rankings for Championship qualification in December.

You can be a part of this event by becoming a Sponsor, placing an advertisement, sponsoring a trophy, or supplying a personal note of encouragement in the official Tournament Program.

Booth spaces for merchandise vendors or non-profit groups are also available for an on-site presence at our event. See www.savannabandinfo.com for further event information.
